Newspapers by ancestry
https://www.newspapers.com/image/265198182

Downloaded on Apr 20, 2021

ALICE MORA

PRICELLA SMITH

BETTY JOYCE LEE

VIOLA CLAYTON

Four Women Fugitives From Sonoma State Home Hunted

(Continued From Page 1)

d to other institutions, but it was ur maximum security."

SONOMA POLICE said they were called on the escapes at 11:20 ast night, but had failed to pick p any "definite lead" on the es- apees up to 6 a.m. today. They aid one of the two sets of keys he four took in their flight had een recovered on the Sonoma State Home grounds. The other et is still missing.

THE NAPA COUNTY sheriff's ffice reported at about 4:35 p. m. oday that a citizen had reported eeing two dark girls, about 17 ears old, behind a building in owntown Napa.

Officers dispatched to the vicinty could find no one answering he description.

All four women were wearing treet clothes when they left their ottage, state home officials reported.

The Zimmermann murder and ater Eldridge escape reports resulted in a series of mass indignation meetings in the Sonoma area. They culminated in a strong request from the Sonoma county grand jury that 30 psychopathic delinquents at the home with criminal records be removed at once.

Further recommendations by the grand jury are to be taken up with state officials next week. The jury has asked for an appointment next Tuesday with Gov. Earl Warren and Dr. Lawrence Kolb, director of the state department of mental hygiene.

The latest escape brought this comment yesterday from Dr. David E. Jones, president of the Sonoma Valley Chamber of Commerce:

"We are fed up," Dr. Jones said. "This is more than enough.

"We want them all out of there and a high wire around the place," Mr. Jones said.

Dr. Jones said four resort owners from the valley told him they "might as well close up" because of cancellations directly attributable to the Sonoma home escapes. He said he will see Dr. Marshall Porter tomorrow in an effort "to clear up this thing in a hurry."

"It's killing business in the valley," Dr. Jones said.

5 Excused in Remmer Case

SAN FRANCISCO, June 20 — (AP) — Municipal Judge Harry Neubarth today refused a defense motion to dismiss the jury venire in the Elmer (Bones) Remmer gambling case.

Instead he excused five prospective jurors who had reported receiving mysterious telephone calls, and ordered both sides to speed up the trial.

The defense had asked that the entire venire of 80 persons be dismissed because of the calls Copyright © 2021 Newspapers.com. All Rights Reserved.

Powered by Newspapers.com